

Sam Wu

Vice President, Leasing, Taubman China

Since joining Taubman TCBL in 2009, Sam Wu has served as Director - Leasing for both the Xian CityOn project (opened in 2016) and the Zhengzhou CityOn project (opened in 2017). Promoted to Vice President - Leasing in 2017, Sam continues to lead the leasing and merchandising efforts in China.

Sam has over thirty years of real estate experience and has worked closely with developers, investment funds, property consultants and retailers. He has been involved in a wide spectrum of both sales and leasing for retail, office, residential and industrial properties.

Prior to joining Taubman, Sam was with Lai Fung Holdings Limited as the Assistant Vice President. He was responsible for the group retail and office portfolio in Shanghai, including the revamping of Hong Kong Plaza on Huai Hai Road, Shanghai. Sam also worked as a senior executive for Fortune REIT which is listed in Singapore and managed by ARA Management Pte Ltd, an affiliate of Cheung Kong Holdings. Before that, Sam was at Vigers International Property Consultants for close to 20 years and the last position held at the company was General Manager of the Realty Business Unit.
